

Cushman & Wakefield named Adviser of the Year at Prime Property Prize 2018

Warsaw, 18 September 2018 – Global real estate services firm Cushman & Wakefield has been named the Adviser of the Year at Prime Property Prize 2018, the seventh edition of the contest. The prize was awarded during an official gala held at Warsaw’s VITKAC building at 9 Bracka Street on 17 September.

The Adviser of the Year is awarded to leading advisory agencies on the Polish commercial real estate market for their activity particularly in leasing commercial space, selling real estate, investment transaction services, and for their contribution to the development of the real estate industry and innovative services.

“The Adviser of the Year award perfectly encapsulates Cushman & Wakefield’s outstanding performance on the Polish commercial real estate market in the past year. We acted on some of the biggest and most spectacular transactions, which was certainly a factor in the voting process. We would like to thank all our partners and clients who voted for us. We have always been at the forefront of new trends and will continue to lead the way by introducing new, innovative solutions to raise standards in the real estate industry,” said Charles Taylor, Partner, Head of Cushman & Wakefield Poland.

Prime Property Prize 2018 was organised by the PTWP S.A. Group, which owns Propertynews.pl and Propertydesign.pl. The Group also holds cyclical Property Forum 2018 conferences.
