

Cushman & Wakefield appoints Mariola Bitner as Associate in Project & Development Services team

Warsaw, 8 February 2019 – Mariola Bitner, an experienced and certified project manager, joins the Polish Project & Development Services team of global real estate services firm Cushman & Wakefield. As an Associate, Mariola will support the team leadership to manage operational and financial matters, manage key internal and external client accounts and interface with other Cushman & Wakefield teams, both in Poland and internationally.

Mariola joins Cushman & Wakefield from AECOM, where she was responsible for several cross-border mandates and projects in recent years. Most notably, she led interior and workplace strategy projects for the likes of Huawei, Shell, Orange, and HP.

As a Client Account Manager, Mariola was responsible for the European region. She played a key role in client office portfolio management, dealing regularly with leadership, and ensuring a successful linkage between all stakeholders across multiple European geographies and service lines. Mariola has a proven track record in building strong project teams and long-term relationships with clients.

Andrew Frizell, Head of Project & Development Services at Cushman & Wakefield in Poland, commented: “Mariola joining our team is part of our longer term business plan which centers on bringing in best-in-class talent at every level. We have made remarkable progress in the last 24 months and our team has already doubled in size. Mariola brings a wealth of top-class experience and will greatly assist our strategic development and client delivery models.”
